

Lent: Tell Me Something Good

'Tell Me Something Good' is our theme for this year's season of Lent. Here's an introduction to our theme, a question for you to ponder, and a suggested action step you can take in preparation for Lent. Advent and Lent are big seasons of preparation in the Christian year. Advent is the four weeks preceding Christmas and Lent is the six weeks in preparation for Easter. Lent was originally a season for new converts to learn and prepare for their baptism on Easter. During that time they would study what was central to Christianity.

This lent we'll aim to ground ourselves in Christ's good news. We'll focus on what was central to Jesus' life and ministry. Here's a question for you to ponder: When you think of Jesus what teachings of his stand out to you? Emulating Jesus and embodying his teachings can ground us in who God created us to be. We have the potential to be 'good news people' in a world too often burdened by bad news.

This Lent we aim to remember that the good news of the gospel really is good news for all of us. Good news grows like a mustard seed and smells like perfume poured from an alabaster jar. It tastes like bread passed endlessly through a hungry crowd. It sounds like laughter and feels like mercy. Good news is alive in the world.

Central to Jesus' life and ministry were: radical welcome, love for neighbor, care for the vulnerable, nourishment for the hungry, and nonviolence in the face of injustice. At the heart of Jesus' teachings, we find liberation, love, mercy, and grace. These values of Jesus are very good news. When we commit to following these values of Jesus we are shaped and our communities may be shaped with more justice, mercy and love.

One action that may help you connect with Zion's Lent theme 'Tell Me Something Good' is to consider daily journaling or answering in your mind this question, 'What is something good that happened today?' This exercise has the simple power of bringing to mind the good and hopeful sights and experiences in your day. Bad things are loud. They can rise to the top of mind and overpower the narrative of our days. Asking ourselves what good happened today, gives us the opportunity to be grounded in the truth that goodness is all around us.

This Lent, we'll let the teachings of Jesus lead us forward. May the good news inspire us to take action in a world desperate to hear, see, and taste what is good.

Matthew 13:31-32 shares this good news: '[Jesus] put before them a parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.'

Prayer: Good news God, speak louder than the news headlines. Speak louder than our mental distractions. Speak louder than our anger and louder than our fear.
O God, speak, because we long to hear your good news once more. Amen.

Lent Devotions 'Tell Me Something Good' will be available from Sanctified Art with art, reflections and poetry weekly for the season of Lent. Pick up yours outside the church office for $2, $3 for large print. Available mid February.

Holy Listening: January 25, 2026

A number of us from Zion were at the Holy Listening session on January 25th where we met with Katelynn and Analycia from the Minot Domestic Violence Crisis Center (DVC). They explained the purpose of the DVC: a dedication to serving those who are in relationship abuse. Their staff is focused on serving the unique needs of victims and survivors of domestic abuse and sexual assault. All their services are free to the people they help.

We got to ask lots of questions, with the primary focus on what we, as Zion Lutheran, can do to become involved in assisting the Center with fulfilling their mission. As we learned more about the programming, information, and resources available to the victims they serve, a number of ideas came up on our role as a partner in helping them.

Besides the financial piece of their operation, there are a number of other ways we can be involved. Stay tuned for more information on how we, as Zion, can be engaged.
